Weekly Newsletter of the Kanawha City Church of Christ

May 7, 2019

Over the next few weeks we will celebrate both Mother's Day and Father's Day. These are two wonderful holidays for children to celebrate the impact that parents have in their lives. It is also a time for parents to celebrate the God-given privilege and responsibility of raising children.

I came across an article entitled, Five Proverbs Essential for Biblical Parenting. I found this article to be a nice encouragement, from God's Word, on being Godly parents. The thoughts found in it come from Proverbs 16; so, it is certainly not an exhaustive list of everything the Bible has to say about parenting. However, looking at these proverbs from a parenting point of view can be very encouraging in our walk as parents.

1. You must be sold out to God! - (Proverbs 16:3)
2. Your word as a parent must be consistent and trustworthy. - (Proverbs 16:11)
3. Your smile matters! - (Proverbs 16:15)
4. Exasperation is a relationship killer! - (Proverbs 16:18)
5. Pleasant words promote instruction! - (Proverbs 16:20-24)

(The whole article can be found at <http://www.shepherdpress.com/five-proverbs-essential-for-biblical-parenting/>)

I hope these Proverbs can be encouraging to you as you travel down the sometimes bumpy road of parenthood.

Love you all!

Stephen

WHEREVER YOU GO

Graduations bring a commencement, or beginning, of new things.

In 1990, Dr. Seuss published Oh, the Places You'll Go! This popular graduation gift tells in Seuss' inimitable style of all life's possible ups and downs, twists and turns. There will surely be excitement and slumps, fun and loneliness, purpose and confusion. And, yes, fear: "There are some [things], down the road between hither and yon, that can scare you so much you won't want to go on."

The sheer determination of the storybook's life-traveler moves him beyond trouble and fear. But God's children don't have to go it alone. Life cannot take us anywhere God hasn't been first. Furthermore, he walks beside us on every winding path and around every corner.

Graduates— and all Christians— can trust in the promise of Joshua 1:9: "Be strong and courageous...for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go."

WELCOME JACOB
