STRANGE MARRIAGE

The wedding was over. Joe and his new bride were alone. As the car pulled away, the bride said, "Take me home."

"HOME?" Joe exclaimed. "But we haven't started the honeymoon yet!"

"Joe," she said, "I'm glad we're married. We belong to each other and I can use your name as mine, but I want to go back to my old home. Now that we're married, I'll try to see you once a week. But as far as living with you is concerned, nothing doing. Oh, yes, I do love you! I've accepted you as my husband, haven't I? I belong to you forever. But I refuse to let you interfere with my life. Of course, if I am sick or need money, I'll call you at one because, after all, you're my husband. In the meantime, thank you for loving me and being my husband, but keep your hands off my life!"

Yet there are so many whose attitude toward Jesus is exactly the same as this bride's attitude toward her husband. They say, "Lord, I have confessed you as Savior. I've been baptized. Thank you for saving me. Now leave me alone! I'm going back to my old way of life. I'll expect you to help me if I need it since you are my Savior. But as far as living with you, nothing doing. Of course when I die I want to come and share the home you are preparing. But I hope that will not be for a long time."

In Romans 7 Paul uses marriage as an illustration, by saying that becoming a Christian you are joined to Christ who died for your sins and rose again. At the precise moment you come forth from the waters of baptism you are "married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead." (Rom. 7:4)
