Weekly Newsletter of the Kanawha City Church of Christ

June 4, 2019

Over the past couple of weeks we have been looking at the theme of “Shepherding” as it is presented in the Bible. This week we will be using that theme to begin guiding us in the process of installing and reconfirming elders. We have acknowledged the “Elder Qualification” passages in 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1; but so far we have not studied them. However, these two passages will serve as the main focus for our lesson. In preparation for the sermon, I am asking you to read and pray through these two passages over the next couple of days. Try to see Paul’s message through the lens of shepherding. And pray that God will give us wisdom and guidance as we move forward in this process.

Love you all!

Stephen

1 TIMOTHY 3:1-7

1 Here is a trustworthy saying: Whoever aspires to be an overseer desires a noble task. 2 Now the overseer is to be above reproach, faithful to his wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, 3 not given to drunkenness, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money. 4 He must manage his own family well and see that his children obey him, and he must do so in a manner worthy of full respect. 5 (If anyone does not know how to manage his own family, how can he take care of God’s church?) 6 He must not be a recent convert, or he may become conceited and fall under the same judgment as the devil. 7 He must also have a good reputation with outsiders, so that he will not fall into disgrace and into the devil’s trap.

TITUS 1:6-9

6 An elder must be blameless, faithful to his wife, a man whose children believe and are not open to the charge of being wild and disobedient. 7 Since an overseer manages God’s household, he must be blameless—not overbearing, not quick-tempered, not given to drunkenness, not violent, not pursuing dishonest gain. 8 Rather, he must be hospitable, one who loves what is good, who is self-controlled, upright, holy and disciplined. 9 He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound doctrine and refute those who oppose it.
