BACK TO SCHOOL

Back to school season is here: a time for children to moan and groan, while their parents rejoice. I asked the teens in class the other day if any of them were ready to go back to school, and I got a collective “no” as the answer. I think it is safe to say that we have had a great summer and they don’t want to see it go away. But alas, the time has come where the kiddos have to go and learn how to be the next doctors, lawyers, teachers, etc.

I want to take this time to wish our kids luck in the next few weeks to come as they enter a new year with new teachers, new lessons, new friends and new experiences. This is going to be a whole new year for them, as they pack up and go through those doors. My hope and prayer for them is that they continue in their faith while they go through this time of “new” – that they see there is a stability in their lives and His name is Jesus.

I also want to take this time to wish our parents luck in the upcoming weeks. You may have children or grandchildren starting to take on a new adventure this year and I pray for you all too. I am not a parent, so I don’t necessarily grasp the understanding of sending a child to school, but I do know that it is hard for you to do so. My hope and prayer for you all is that you are able to keep the faith going in the house, so that your kids understand the importance of what it means to have Jesus everywhere with them.

Finally, I want to take this time to wish our teachers luck in the upcoming weeks. We have several in the congregation who take on the important role of teacher, and I pray for you all right now. The strength that you provide to show your love through teaching is the ultimate outreach that you can do. I thank you for your ability to teach, your willingness to lead, and your courage to stay strong. I also thank those who teach here at the church and the talents you provide here.

Good Luck! Have Fun! Enjoy this Year!

~Jacob~

Sponsors are being lined up for our teens so make sure they are up and ready for their 9-lap walk. We won't be there the whole time. My goal is to get there around 9am and do our 9 laps together and then go back to the church to set up for our community outreach day.

We will be passing out our sponsored backpacks, having cookout food, and loving on our community as we show them who we are. Join our teens and help them spread the love of Christ throughout Charleston.

Sponsor a teen in the Walk for Hope - Our youth group will participating in the Walk for Hope, which is a walk to raise money and awareness for opioid addiction in WV.
