Weekly Newsletter of the Kanawha City Church of Christ

THANK YOU FOR HOME

This weekend has been packed full with conflicting emotions. I spent the majority of the weekend helping my dad pack up my childhood home. My family and I moved into this house when I was six years old. This had been our home for 24 years! My dad now lives across the street from us; and we are excited to have him close by. However, it was difficult to walk out of the house and watch him hand over the keys to the new owners.

I'm excited for a new family to make our old house their home. The new owners are friends from our childhood. They are a good, Christian couple that is raising a family of their own. It is my prayer that they will create a lifetime of memories in that house, just as we did.

Though this house was simply a location, it was the location of so many important times in my life. It was the location of family dinners, family devotionals, and family holidays. It was the location of conversations and celebrations; as well as, debates and fights. It was a location of learning to grow from a child to an adult. It was a location of learning to grow to be more like Jesus.

A house is more than a house when a family turns it into a home. A house is more than a house when it is a place to create memories. A house is more than a house when it is a place filled with love. A house is more than a house when the people use it as a place to share God with one another. But, when all is said and done - and the family moves out - the house becomes just a house. It becomes a house for someone else to turn into a home.

That house will forever be my childhood house, but I will find home with the people I shared it with and the God I was introduced to in that house. We have sold the house, but home - well, "home is where the heart is!"

Dear God,

My prayer is for the new family that lives in my childhood house. My prayer is for the household of everyone who reads this. My prayer is that in every house parents will love their children. Children will love their parents. Brothers and sisters will love one other. Husbands and wives will love each other as Christ has loved His church.

My prayer is that every house will find a home in You. My prayer is that every home will find Your blessing. My prayer is that every home will fight through the troubles, share each other's burdens, and wipe away each other's tears. My prayer is that every house will be turned into a home through a lifetime of cherished memories. My prayer is that every home will be used to glorify You!

My prayer is that every household will echo the words of Joshua: "...as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD." (Joshua 24:15)

My prayer is that when all is said and done, and this world is over, we will all leave our houses behind, but still find our home with You!

*God, thank you for our houses, but more importantly... thank you for our home!
In Jesus' Name... AMEN*

Love you all, Stephen
