Any complaints?

While serving as a chaplain at a children's hospital, Lisa Anderson once found a young mother kneeling in the chapel. When Anderson apologized for disrupting, the woman said, "That's okay. I was just complaining to the Lord. I figure it worked for the Israelites!"

After laughing, the women began discussing how God listens to his people regardless of our approach. Indeed, Moses tells Aaron, "Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, 'Draw near to the LORD, for he has heard your complaining'" (Exodus 16:9, NRSV). And as David hid in a cave from Saul, he wrote, "I pour out my complaint before [the Lord]" (Psalm 142:2).

No matter what we say — or pray — our all-powerful God certainly can handle it. And no matter what's troubling us, we can "take heart!" because Jesus has "overcome the world" (John 16:33, ESV). — Newsletter, Newsletter
