MENS BIBLE CLASS

Our church has started a Men's Bible Class which will meet at the church building on Monday nights from 6:30-7:30 p.m. The class is using Max Lucado's book 3:16: The Numbers of Hope. As Max says about his book:

Sometimes life appears to fall to pieces and can seem irreparable. We've all had our fair share of disappointments, loss, or hardships. But for every challenge there is a breathtaking promise: It's going to be okay. How can we know? Because God so loved the world. In 3:16, Max encourages us to study closely the "Hope Diamond of the Bible": John 3:16.

All men are welcome. Books have been ordered for the class. If you have any questions, please see Chris Morris.

DAILY BIBLE READING

While we have finished our daily Bible reading plan for 2021, the adult class is continuing its study of Revelation.

A cowboy once offered this sensible notion of living the Christian faith:

"Lotsa folks who'd really like to do right think that servin' the Lord just means shoutin' themselves hoarse praisin' his name.

"Well, I'll tell ya how I look at that. I'm workin' here fer Jim. Now, if I'd sit around the house here tellin' what a good fella Jim is, and singin' songs to him, and gettin' up in the night to serenade him, I'd be doin' just like a lot of Christians do. But I wouldn't suit Jim, and I'd get fired mighty quick.

"But when I buckle on my straps and hustle among the hills and see that Jim's herd is all right and not sufferin' fer water and feed, or bein' off the range and branded by cattle thieves, well then, I'm servin' Jim the way he wants to be served." - Newsletter Newsletter
