The next meeting of the Ladies Book Club will be on Tuesday, May 24, 2022, at 6:00 p.m., at Rocas Mexican Grill, 87 R H L Blvd (Trace Fork Shopping Area), South Charleston.

The book selection is Black Wall Street, The Spirit of Community by LaQuitta Barnes.

If you have any questions, please see Linda Johnson.

All ladies are welcome.

This upcoming Sunday we will host a Senior Banquet for our graduating high school seniors.

We are catering the event, so no need to bring any food. If you plan to attend, please RSVP with the church at office@kccofc.org. We would like to get a close headcount to allow our caterers to provide adequate food for everyone.

If you have any questions, please see Sara or Carson Henley.

We hope to see you there and we cannot wait to honor graduates!

Graduations bring a commencement, or beginning, of new things.

In 1990, Dr. Seuss published Oh, the Places You'll Go! This popular graduation gift tells in Seuss' inimitable style of all life's possible ups and downs, twists and turns. There will surely be excitement and slumps, fun and loneliness, purpose and confusion. And, yes, fear: "There are some [things], down the road between hither and yon, that can scare you so much you won't want to go on."

The sheer determination of the storybook's life-traveler moves him beyond trouble and fear. But God's children don't have to go it alone. Life cannot take us anywhere God hasn't been first. Furthermore, he walks beside us on every winding path and around every corner.

Graduates — and all Christians — can trust in the promise of Joshua 1:9 (NIV): "Be strong and courageous ... for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go." - Newsletter Newsletter
