SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

The adult bible class meets on Sunday mornings from 9:30 to 10:15 am. The class has just started a study of the book of Jonah by Eric Mason. From the introduction to the study:

At the end of the day, God is less concerned with what we do for Him than who we are in Him. Few figures illustrate that truth better than Jonah. Focused on the prophet rather than his prophecy, the story of Jonah gives us a picture of a man on the run due to his own selfish desires. Instead of showing mercy to his enemies, he determined to keep God's grace to himself rather than share it with those he considered undeserving. Can you relate?

This study of Jonah is available free on RightNow Media. Please call the office, if you need a password to access the website.

An ancient heresy — that the God of the Old Testament was a God of judgment and wrath, while the God of the New Testament is a God of grace and love — still persists a bit. Yet God is the same God, with the same characteristics, throughout time. Way back in Genesis 3, God graciously sewed garments to clothe humans, although they had disobeyed him. And even in the Gospels, God's anger was evident through Jesus' response to temple moneychangers cheating the poor.

God always works for life and goodness in all things. Sometimes people misunderstand God's ways; sometimes God, like a human parent, uses "tough love." Mick Brooks writes: "The Old Testament is God for us, the time of Christ is God with us, and the age of the Holy Spirit is God in us" (Every Day With Jesus, Sept/Oct 2020). That may be a bit simplistic, but it's a good reminder that while God's ways of interacting with us vary, he — the God of Love — does not. — Newsletter Newsletter

WORLD BIBLE SCHOOL

Remember the old ad "Let your fingers do the walking?" Well, you can still do that. Only instead of letting your fingers walk you over to the Yellow Pages you can let your fingers walk you to any country in the world—and tell them about Jesus.

With World Bible School you can sit comfortably at your computer or laptop and study WBS lessons with a student in any, and almost every, part of the world (yes, that includes the U.S. also). Check out: worldbibleschool.org for more information and/or see Grace Wagner.
