SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

The adult bible class meets on Sunday mornings from 9:30 to 10:15 am. The class is using a study of the book of Jonah by Eric Mason. From the introduction to the study:

At the end of the day, God is less concerned with what we do for Him than who we are in Him. Few figures illustrate that truth better than Jonah. Focused on the prophet rather than his prophecy, the story of Jonah gives us a picture of a man on the run due to his own selfish desires. Instead of showing mercy to his enemies, he determined to keep God's grace to himself rather than share it with those he considered undeserving. Can you relate?

This study of Jonah is available free on RightNow Media. Please call the office, if you need a password to access the website.

It's that time of year . . . Please call the office, if you would like your 2022 Giving Statement mailed to you.

WORLD BIBLE SCHOOL

Remember the old ad "Let your fingers do the walking?" Well, you can still do that. Only instead of letting your fingers walk you over to the Yellow Pages you can let your fingers walk you to any country in the world—and tell them about Jesus.

With World Bible School you can sit comfortably at your computer or laptop and study WBS lessons with a student in any, and almost every, part of the world (yes, that includes the U.S. also). Check out: worldbibleschool.org for more information and/or see Grace Wagner.

God wants us to choose to love him freely, even when that choice involves pain, because we are committed to him, not to our own good feelings and rewards. He wants us to cleave to him, as Job did, even when we have every reason to deny him hotly. That, I believe, is the central message of Job.

Satan had taunted God with the accusation that humans are not truly free. Was Job being faithful simply because God had allowed him a prosperous life? Job's fiery trials proved the answer beyond doubt. Job clung to God's justice when he was the best example in history of God's apparent injustice. He did not seek the Giver because of his gifts; when all gifts were removed, he still sought the Giver.

--Philip Yancey, Where Is God When It Hurts?
