SUNDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY

The adult bible class meets on Sunday mornings from 9:30 to 10:15 am. The class is using a study of the book of Jonah by Eric Mason. From the introduction to the study:

At the end of the day, God is less concerned with what we do for Him than who we are in Him. Few figures illustrate that truth better than Jonah. Focused on the prophet rather than his prophecy, the story of Jonah gives us a picture of a man on the run due to his own selfish desires. Instead of showing mercy to his enemies, he determined to keep God's grace to himself rather than share it with those he considered undeserving. Can you relate?

This study of Jonah is available free on RightNow Media. Please call the office, if you need a password to access the website.

My coming to faith did not start with a leap but rather a series of staggers from what seemed like one safe place to another. Like lily pads, round and green, these places summoned and then held me up while I grew. Each prepared me for the next leaf on which I would land, and in this way I moved across the swamp of doubt and fear ... to the verdant pad of faith on which I somehow stay afloat today. — Anne Lamott, Traveling Mercies
