Excerpt/s from a Letter from the Tombolombo Church of Christ in Malawi, Africa:

On behalf of the church in Tombolombo and of course on behalf of the churches (75) in the general area of Tombolombo, we would like to convey our gratitude for the help of assorted items you have given us. You have provided things related to everyday life, health, education, clothing, and spiritual life (Hymn books, literature, and Bibles). We do not take this for granted. You have magnified the Love of God in His kingdom.

* * *

[Various disasters recently hit Malawi and have] hindered church attendance and volunteer work. Your help has made the words spoken by our Savior, Jesus Christ clearer now than before. When you first obey the gospel other things shall be given to you as well (Mat 6). You have put the light on the stand for people to see and also to engage in a divine ministry of taking care of, Jesus by helping those in need (Mat 13 & 24). Weekly attendance is increasing and many people are obeying the gospel.

Full letter is on the bulletin board in the lobby.
