THANK YOU

Thank you to all those who participated in our We are the Service Unity Service with the Kanawha Valley Church this past Sunday.

We put together backpacks filled with cold-weather supplies for the homeless. The backpacks were taken by members to be distributed around the Charleston area to help those who have so little. The children of the church colored and put together cards for our shut-ins and the cards were taken to the various nursing homes where our members reside.

... Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You something to drink? And when did we see You a stranger, and invite You in, or naked, and clothe You? When did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You? The King will answer and say to them, "Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me." Matthew 25:37-40

LADIES' BOOK CLUB

The Book Club's next meeting will be on Tuesday, January 28, 2025, (TONIGHT) 6:00 pm, at Panera Bread, South Ridge, South Charleston.

The book selection for January's discussion is No Two Persons by Erica Baermeister. If you have any questions, please contact Sheila Dale.

Everyone is welcome.

An old hymn declares:

*I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Come unto me and rest.
Lay down, O weary one, lay down your head upon my breast."
I came to Jesus as I was, so weary, worn and sad.
I found in him a resting-place, and he has made me glad. (Horatius Bonar, 1846)*

Many people these days feel exhausted by division, the news, hatred that seems louder than love. More than ever, we who are "weary, worn, and sad" need to hear Jesus say, "Come unto me and rest."

Jesus wants to be our resting place — but not so we can hide forever from reality. Instead, he offers a place of refreshment where we can relax long enough to remember that not everything is bad; there is [the] gospel to share. Not everything is hatred; God's love is stronger.

Resting in Jesus, we focus on God's goodness. We are reminded of love shown by kind people to those in trouble, bold voices speaking for justice, warm friendships that brighten our days. Gladdened by rest, we rise again. Jesus walks with us, as always. We can lean on him every step of the way. —Heidi Hyland Mann
